

Papworth Trust

equality choice independence

Gold Award Winner

Foundations for Living

Bruce's story

Bruce, who uses a wheelchair after a motorbike crash says “I’ve now got my own front door, I’ve gone from living in a residential care home to living independently”

Bruce Wall

Foundations for Living

A landmark scheme supporting disabled people to live independently:

- 24 affordable rented wheelchair accessible properties
- 22 private flats
- Saxongate Community Learning Centre

Bradbury Place

371,000 people in need of adapted accommodation
live in unsuitable homes...

Every year the Papworth Trust helps and supports over 10,000 disabled
people achieve equality, choice and independence.

Foundations for Living

Saxongate Community Learning Centre is a fully accessible space for disabled and non-disabled people.

The success of Foundations for Living has inspired the Papworth Trust to develop a ‘Guide to Developing Inclusive Communities’

Share in our knowledge and expertise - contact the Marketing Team on:

01480 357200

or visit our website:

www.papworth.org.uk

