

New contact details for the advocacy service for people using Papworth Trust services

Who are Speaking Up?

Speaking Up are a voluntary organisation supporting people to get their voices heard.

What is the Speaking Up Independent Advocacy Service at Papworth Trust?

Papworth Trust knows it is important that everyone who uses their services has access to an independent person to help them speak up if they are unhappy.

What can the Speaking Up advocacy service help with?

The advocate is available to any person using any Papworth Trust service. The advocate will work one-to-one with an individual who has a specific issue related to their service from Papworth Trust. The advocate can also support people if they wish to make a complaint.

Speaking Up provide a confidential service.
